

Could you be a Sport Maker?

Jenny:
Achieved her personal best

Steve:
Planned the route, encouraged us to run with him and supported us along the way

Are you passionate about sport, health, fitness or physical activity?
Do you have skills or hobbies that could support others to be more active?

Do you want to be part of the London 2012 buzz and help create a volunteering legacy?...

With the Sport Makers programme you could find yourself helping to support grassroots sport and bringing the Olympic and Paralympic values to life in your community; by delivering a participation event (a fun run or open day at a local club, etc), leading a group on a healthy walk, cycle ride or jog, or perhaps helping to organise a tournament, festival or league.

Whatever your skills and interests we can find an opportunity in Cornwall for you to be part of it!

The Journey

The first step on the Sport Makers' journey is attending a positive and inspirational three-hour workshop. You will learn about Olympic and Paralympic values, leadership skills, working with others and safeguarding. When you attend a workshop you will also receive a free Adidas polo shirt and drawstring bag!

Following the workshop, you will be provided with volunteering opportunities to suit your interests and location. Opportunities will be updated on the website where you can also register as a volunteer, search for placement opportunities and log your progress.

Sport Makers & the Workplace

Cornwall Sports Partnership has already been engaging with local businesses to support existing and new volunteer schemes. Employee volunteer schemes can be a great way to motivate staff and contribute towards performance development within the workplace. The Sport Makers programme not only offers training for volunteers but also has a reward scheme to acknowledge their great work... If you are an employee, employer or volunteer co-coordinator and would like to get involved with this fantastic new nationwide volunteering initiative please get in touch, we'd love to speak to you!
